Superintendent's List:

- SQPR of 3.4 or higher with no grade less than “C”.
- “A” in Military Performance and Conduct.
- “A” or “B” in Physical Education.
- “A” or “B” on PRT

Dean's List (excludes those on Superintendent's List):

- SQPR of 3.4 or higher with no “D”s or “F”s.
- “A” or “B” in Conduct and Military Performance
- “C” or better in Physical Education.
- “C” or better on PRT

Commandant's List:

- SQPR of 2.9 or higher.
- “A” or “B” in Military Performance.
- “A” in Conduct.
- “A” or “B” in Physical Education.

Academic Deficiency or UNSAT:

Midshipmen are considered UNSAT if their QPR (six-week, twelve-week or end-of-semester) is less than 2.00, or if they have two or more “D”s or at least one “F” in the last semester’s grade report. UNSAT Midshipmen will not be allowed to participate in voluntary movement orders or weekend liberty without the Commandant's permission. They will also be assigned specific guidance by the Company Officer aimed at helping to improve their academic performance. This will probably include guidance pertaining to Extra Instruction, number of hours studied, and place of study.
